PRESIDENT WILSON IN ALEXANDRIA

Chief Executive Passes Through City This Morning.

VISITS MT. VERNON.

Does Not Stop But Makes Quick Trip From Capitol to Washington's Home.

Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, paid his first visit to Alexandria today. It was not much of a visit, the chief executive being within the city limits only a very few minutes and that time was spent speeding at the rate of 40 miles an hour from the northern boundry of the city to the southern enroute to and from Mt. Vernon.

Unlike the ceremonies performed at the gates of the old city of London when the king is stopped at Temple Bar and received by Lord Mayor who presents him with the golden keys, representing the freedom of the city, the chief magistrate entered Alexandria without a moments warning to any one in the city and his visit was inconspicuous as possible.

The President was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, his daughters and several guests. They came in two large black automobiles which were guarded by two secret service men riding motorcycles. The party entered Alexandria at the north end of Washington street a few minutes after 11 o'clock. They came down Washington street, and when Prince street was reached the Confederate monument was circled and the machines came back to King street then out King to Patrick and across Hunting Creek on the old highway bridge.

A quick run was made to Mt. Vernon and the party returned to Washington passing through here at 1:30 p. m.

The visit wa sthe first one made by President Wilson to Mt. Vernon since coming to Washington and was taken in pursuance of his plan to make Saturday a rest day as much as possible. It is believed that as a result of his trip President Wilson will be a strong advocate of the Memorial highway to Mt. Vernon.

While at Mt. Vernon the guests were entertained by the board of regents of the Mt. Vernon Ladies Association which began its annual meeting yesterday at Mt. Vernon with 27 members present to take part in the ten-day session. Miss Harriet C. Comegys, the regent, submitted her annual report, outlining the work of the association during the past year.

Restoration of the home of Washington practically has been completed, Miss Comeygs reported. Many relics have been restored, and by degrees the Mount Vernon shelves are being filled with books and papers that belonged to Washington. Reports showing in detail the condition of the entire estate were presented by Superintendent H. Dodge and his assistant.

Chief Justice White, John Pierpont Morgan and Edwin Warfield have been added to the advisory board.

INTO FLYWHEEL TO DIE.

Unique Suicide of Man for Whom Warrant Was Out.

Pittsburgh, May 10.—Fragments of a human body flying about the Keystone Axle Works gave workmen in the plant the first intimation that Anko Bezjok had been killed, while investigation disclosed the fact that he had deliberately chosen one of the strangest method on record for ending his life.

Bezjok jumped into the big flywheel on the main engine in the axle works, at 34th street and the Allegheny Valley Railroad, where he was employed as a polisher. His body was whirled through the air many times before it caught between the wheel and a shaft on the engine and was cut to pieces.

Bezjok is said to have been brooding over the fact that the warrant had been isseud for his arrest on a minor charge.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Lieut. Richard Hill, U. S. N., was found yesterday in his room in a boarding house at Annapolis, Md. with a bullet wound through his heart. His engagement to Miss Henrietta Erwin, daughter of Lieut-Col. Jas. B. Erwin, U. S. A., now stationed at Manila, P. I., was announced only a a few days ago, and it is understood that the wedding was to have taken place in November, upon the return ofLieut-Col. Erwin from the Philippines.

Officials of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, including Superintendent of Motive Power Gould, of Richmond, are in Huntington, W. Va., conferring with a committee representing the car men employed in the local shops, who have threatened to strike unless fourteen of the work men who recently allied themselve with the "Holy Roller" religious sect are required to join the union or are discharged. The trouble threatens to involve 2,500 men employed at the shops. The creed of the "Holy Rollers" prohibits the members from allying themselves with other secret organizationss and they recently withdrew from the union.

The general committee on Home Missions of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, in session in Washington today, received special appeals for aid from congregations in Ohio and Indiana which suffered from the recent floods. The appeals called for $126,609. Aid also was asked for Italians and other aiens in the mountains of Kentucky and in Utah. Home mission receipts during the last year amounted to $191,207 and expenditures $189,719. The committee will conclude its work and on Wednesday most of the half hundred deegates will go to Atlanta to attend the session of the Pan-Presbyterian General Assembly.

Lieut. Joseph D. Park, Fourth Cavalry, U. S. A., West Point graduate and member of the army aviation corps, stationed at San Diego, Cal., after successfully sailing 100 miles through the air in an attempt to fly a Curtis type biplane from San Diego to Los Angeles, was instantly killed near Olive, nine miles north of Santa Anna, yesterday, when his machine went into a ravineturned turtle,and pinned the aviator's body beneateh it. Park was 29 years old, and a native or Warren, N. H.

Following alleged insults, Misses Florence and Belle Rhoages, who conduct a restaurant in Oakland, Md., beset A. C. Whetzell, known as "Cooney" who conducts a similar establishment in an adjoining building, with cowhide whips, leaving stripes and welts with each successive blow. Competition had been keen, and it is charged Whetell stood in front of the young women and used vile epithets. The women decided to take the law into their own hands.

Mrs. Anna Wells, of Swanton, Vt., indicted with husband,Julius Wells, for the murder of two of their children by poisoning, unexpectedly appeared as a witness for the state at the trial of the man yesterday. She declared that at the solicitation of Wells had feigne dinsantiy in order to divert suspicion from her husband to herself, and also had promised to kill herself if necessary to save him. The witness said that while she was in jail and previous to the arrest of Wells he had brought her oranges, into whch poison in liquid form had been injected. He also gave her poison in a small tin box and told her that she must either commit suicide or feign insanity, or she would be put to death in the electric chair.

With four bullet wounds received from the slayer of her husband, who also shot a young boy before committing suicide, Mrs. H. A. Wellington, yesterday dragged herself three quarters of a mile yesterday to the nearest ranch to tell of the tragedy. The woman collapsed after her arrival, and is not expected to recover. The boy is seriously wounded. The shooting occurred on the Wellington ranch, three miles from Dixon, Mont., and the news was brought into that place by neighbors to whom the injured woman went for assistance. The murderer was A. Stansky, and was a stranger in Diron, where he arrived late Thursday afternoon, saying he had come from Washington.

BELLE PRE BOTTLE WORKS TO REOPEN

Plant Will Either be Sold or Operated by the Bondholders.

PLANS CONSIDERED

Decision to be Reached at Once so That Factory Can Resume Work by September First.

The Bell Pre Bottle Co., one of the largest glass plants in the state of Virginia, which went into the hands of a receiver last fall, will reopen for busines son September 1st., when the fall season of the various glass companies commence, according to an anouncement made today. Just who will operate the big plant is not known. F. R. Horner, trustee of the bondholders, is in negotiation with New York parties to either purchase or lease the factory and property of the company located in northwest Alexandria, but if negotiations are not completed at an early date, arrangements will be made by the bondholders to operate the plant on their own account.

Following several disastrous seasons, the company went into the hands of the receivers last year, E. A. Thompson, being named as receiver. The property was sold at public auction on October 14th, for $15,000 to F. R. Horner, of Washington who represents holders of $35,000 of the bonds of the company.

The announcement that the glass plant will be resumed at an early date will be received with a great deal of pleasure by Alexandria business men and people interested in the development of the community. Its failure was keenly felt in business circles as several hundred men and boys were employed in the factory and when operations were discontinued many of them left and have made their homes in other places.

MILITARY JAILS SOCIALISTS.

Papers Confiscated and Editors in Prison by Government's Order.

Huntington, W. Va., May 10.— W. H. Thompson, editor of the Socialist and Labor Star; Elmer Rumble, a reporter, and R. M. Kephart, Geo. Gillespie and F. M. Strum, connected with the paper which was confiscated yesterday morning by the military, acting under orders of Governor Hatfield, were taken to Charleston. The men were in charge of Major Davis and Lieutenants Templeton, Rice and Rippeto, of the West Virginia National Guard.

An attack directed against Governor Hatfield in connection with the coal strike troubles of Kanawha county, under martial law, recently printed in the Socialist publication, caused the raiding of the plant and the arrests. The warrant authorizing the military to take the men into custody does not provide that they be brought to trial, but orders that they be arrested and confined in the county jail as long as necessary, or until further orders from the Governor.

The men left for Charleston without a protest and without making an appeal to the civil courts. A demonstration believed likely, did not occur.

CAR STRIKES OIL TANK WAGON.

A one-horse delivery tank wagon, belonging to the Texas Oil Company, was struck by an Arlington car on the Washington-Virginia Railway, while crossing the highway bridge about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The car hit the rear of the tank wagon with such force that the horse was thrown against the iron pillar of the bridge and injured so he had to be killed. Had this post not intervened witnesses assert wagon and horse would have been thrown overboard into the Potomac. The driver of the wagon lies in a Washington hospital with his arm broken and badly cut and bruised as a result of the accident.

TO MAKE POTOMAC NAVIGABLE.

U. S. Army Engineers Hold Meeting in Cumberland.

Cumberland, Md., May 10.—The initial meeting looking to the formulation of plans to make the Potomac river navigable between Washington and this city was held Thursday morning in the auditorium of the City Hall.

Col. W. C. Langfitt, U. S. A., engineer in charge of the river and harbor district for Washington, D. C., and W. B. Harrison, assistant engineer for that district, launched the movement. Following the suggestion of Colonel Langfitt that Cumberland show interest in the project and supply certain data to the Federal Government a committee, composed of Frederick Mertens, Mayor George G. Young, and John W. Avirett, was named to obtain desired information and to arrange for another meeting to be held the latter part of the month. Until the required data is furnished and evidence given that a heavy tonnage would go out of Cumberland the government would not proceed with any expenditure of money to make the water way navigable.

NEGRO FACES HIS ACCUSER.

Andrew Jackson Positive in His Identification.

As was stated in the Gazette a negro, who gave his name as Stape Crutchfield, was arrested yesterday afternoon at the instance of Andrew Jackson, colored, of this city, who alleges that the prisoner shot and killed a man in a railroad camp between Quantico and Cherry Hill several years ago. Jackson says Chas. Aubennett is the name of the prisoner.

Jackson came to the station house this morning, and in the presence of the accused reiterated that he is the man who committed the murder and then decamped. The prisoner faced his accuser boldly and positively denied the crime imputed to him.

The authorities of the lower counties have been notified and the prisoner will be held subject to their action.

Since the above was written Mayor Fisher communicated with Thomas H. Lyons Commonwealth's Attorney of Prince William, and the latter notified the Mayor that he would send a man to this city for the accused.

IMPROVEMENT OF POTOMAC.

Hearing in Washington This Afternoon on Carlin's Project.

James T. Preston secretary of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce and the river and navigation committee of the same body, consisting of George S. French, chairman; William A. Smoot, Henry K. Feild, William M. Reardon and C. William Watles, went to Washington this afternoon to be present at the conference held between representatives of the War Department and the people of Washington and vicinity in reference to the improvement of the Potomac river from Washington to Cumberland. They were accompanied by Congressman Charles C. Carlin, who secured the appropriation for the preliminary survey of the proposed work.

MAD DOG KILLED.

About half past nine o'clock last night there was considerable excitement in the neighborhood of Telegraph road crossing, about a mile from this city, by a chase after a mad dog, which was particopated in by several persons. The animal was killed after several shots had been directed a tit. Other dogs were running about at the time and there is some apprehension as the animal suffering from rabies may have bitten them.

BRYAN AND CHINDA CONFER ON BILL

No New Developments Until President and Secretary Meet.

ISSUE AT STANDSTILL.

Another Meeting Planned For This Afternoon—May Report to White House This Evening.

Washington, May 10.—Secretary of State Bryan had another conference with Viscount Chinda, the Japanese ambassador, in the State Department this forenoon, but at the close of the interview it was announced that the situation is unchanged.

The ambassador then held a short conference with Jean Basset Moore, counselor, and later Secretary Bryan and Counselor Moore discussed the situation.

Secretary Bryan declared he would have another meeting this afternoon with Viscount Chinda, and that he expected to report on the situation to President Wilson at the White House this afternoon. Just what representations were made at the conference today by the Japanese ambassador are not known. It is believed, however, that the views of the Japanese government have been formally presented, and that there will be no further developments until after Secretary Bryan and President Wilson have conferred on the situation this afternoon.

Just ebfore leavin gthe State Department Ambassador Chinda declared he could make no statement; but that the matter now rested in the hands of the State Department, and that any statement should come from the United States Government.

PRESIDENT HALTS MOVE.

Partial Victory Over Johnosn And House Organization Element.

Washington, May 10.—Because Congressman Ben Johnson and the House organization elements in control of the Democratic Congressional committee lost their nerve at the last minute, the program which was mapped out yesterday of electing Mr. Johnson chairman and Congressman Pepper secretary against the wishes of the President was not carried through when the committee held its meeting last night.

The President, instead, won at least a partial victory. The men were afraid to carry their defiance to the limit an delect officers in spite of his wishes. The result wa sthat, on motion of Mr. Johnson himself. Chairman Lloyd and Secretary Page, the present officers, were chosen to hold on temporarily until a permanent organization could be perfected.

This leaves up i nthe air the question whether the Clark-Underwood forces are going to ultimately to elect officers to their liking or whether the President will yet be able to force them to give up their plan to choose Johnson.

At the meeting last night, the thinly concealed feeling of some of the Democrats against the President broke out in the speeches. Senator Stone, of Missouri, did not veil his resentment at White House interference.

GRAND COUNCIL OF VIRGINIA.

Organization Will Meet in Hampton on Wednesday, May 1.

The Grand Council of Red Men of the State of Virginia, will meet in Hampton on the 21st instant.

Fly swaters have begun their work in Alexandria. Several applicants for the prizes that have been announced for this month have brought in flies with the request that they be placed to their credit. The school children, however, have not so far, shown the interest in the fly campaign which it is expected that they will manifest next month after school closes.

Unles sa much larger number of competitors enter the fly contest for the month of May, Dr. Gorman, health officer, who is in charge o fthe fly campaign, signifies his intention to hold over all prizes announced for this month with the possible exception of one smaller prize and will give the prizes announced for distribution this month to the competitors that enter the fly contest next month.

WETS VICTORIOUS IN CITY OF BRISTOL

Result Gives City $35,000 Additional Revenue and State $12,500.

FIFTY-TWO MAJORITY.

One of The Most Closely Contested Elections in History of City—Wets Are Jubilant.

Bristol Va., May 10.—After a day of strenuous work on both sides, the polls of the local option election here yesterday, closed at sunset, with a victory for the "wets" Out of 681 votes cas. the "wets" had a majority of 52.

Interest was so general that not only most of the voters now regularly in the city went to the polls, but many came from distant points,some of whom had not been here in two or three years. Many of the voters came from a distance.

The poling list shows a total of 727 qualified voters, including old soldiers, and the vote cast was within forty-six of that number. Sunrise found a large delegation of temperance people at the polling place, and practically as many men who had come to do battle for the liquor traffic. It is estimated that fully 100 prominent business men and churchmen, including the pastors of the city churches, remained on the grounds all day, while the women were holding special prayer services in nearby churches. Automobiles and other vehicles were pressed into service on both sides, and no qualified voter was allowed to escape his duty at the polls, if it was possible to find him.

Each side had complete copies of the polling list, and tab was kept on every voter as he entered the polling place.

Everyone was checked off according to the way he was understood to have cast his vote, and when the polls closed the "drys" figured they had twenty majority, allowing the "wets" all doubtful ones. Apparently the vote was so close as between the two during the day that few on either side felt confident.

The whiskey men are jubilant and many messages were hurried to distant friends, including wholesale dlealers in the larger cities. The vote places an additional $35,000 in revenue to the credit of the city treasury and $12,500 to the State. Those amounts having been paid on the first day of the month.

Fine Catch of Whales.

Tacoma, Wash., May 10.—Thirty-five sperm whales worth $490,000, were killed one day off Prince of Prince of Wales Island by three steamers of the United States Whalwhales valued at $630,000, were killed during the first two weeks of the whaling season.

Alaskans say that the indiscriminate slaughter soon will drive the whales off the North Pacific, and that this will result in the destruction of the salmon industry. Countles millions of herings,, now driven close to shore by the whales, will stay out in the depe water, and the salmon, which live on the herring, will stay out in the deep water, and the except in the spawning season. Alaskans would like to supply the conservation idea to the whaling industry.

Women Indicted for Perjury.

Staunton, Va., May 10.—Grand jury in the Corporation Court today indicted Mrs. Clara R. Bosserman and her sister, Mrs. Nellie R. Rowan, for perjury in connection with the recent trial of A. D. Worth, for shooting L. B. Bosserman.

President Finley Improved.

We are glad to note that President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, who had the misfortune to fall and break his collar bone on the 26th of April, at his home, "The Farm," near Warrenton, is greatly improved at this time.—Fauquier Democrat.

EPISCOPALIANS TO LEAVE.

Delegates to Diocesan Convention in Charlottesville To Meet Here Next Year

The annual diocesan convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church will be held in Charlottesville on Wednesday, May 21st. A Sunday school institute will be held on the previous day.

The following are the delegates and alternates from Alexandria: St. Paul's Church, Judge J. K. M. Norton, delegate; John R. Zimmerman, alternate; Grace Church, Frank T. King, delegate; Chas. J. Deahl, alternate; Christ Church; Gardner L. Boothe, delegate; C. C. Leadbeater, alternate. The following clergymen and professors at the Seminary are expected to attend: Rev. W. J Morton, Rev. P. P. Phillips, Rev. Edgar Carpenter, Rev. W. M. Dame and Rev. Professors Berryman Green, S. A. Wallis, Dean Carwford, W. C. Bell and W. E. Rollins.

The most important business to come before the convention is the proposed change of the name of the church.

For a number of years there has been division of opinion between two parties in the church over the name. One side desired to retain the present name while the other wants to change it to the "American Catholic Church." The party which is in favor of the change is the ritualistic element in the church while the conservative element is oposed to the change. The matter will be brought before the general convention which will be held in New York next November.

At the diocesan convention of the District of Columbia which was held in Washington this week, the delegates were instructed to vote against the change and it is believed that the Virginians will take similar action in Charlottesville. All of the Alexandria clergy and delegates are said to be opposed to the change.

It is announced that the diocesan convention next year will be held in Alexandria.

EXCITING RUNAWAY.

A horse attached to a wagon belonging to E. J. Quinn & Son ran away in the northern section of the city yesterday afternoon and did not stop until it reached the southwestern confines. A boy was in charge of the horse at the time it took fright and two little girls were in the wagon. The boy was unequal to the occasion and could do nothing but let the animal run itself down. None of the occupants were injured.

Previous to the runaway the same horse had a narrow escape from being struck by an automobile at the intersection of King and Washington streets.

ODD FELLOWS TO LEAVE.

A large number of Odd Fellows of Alexandria, including Canton Alexandria in uniform will leave here early tomorrow morning to attend the annual convention of the order which will be held in Roanoke commencing next Monday morning. The following are the official representatives of the lodges: Potomac Lodge, Harry E. Arnold; Sarepta Lodge, C. N. Rauch; Marley Encampment, Andrew J. Hall.

White Carnations to Be Worn For Those Dead; Colored For the Living

Mothers' Day has become a fixed institution in this country and its observance is becoming general. Governor Mann has issued a proclamation remommending that it be duly honored and a lar percentage of people throughout the Commonwealth will honor the occasion tomorrow by wearing white carnations in respect to the memory of mothers who have laid aside the burdens of life and entered upon their eternal existence. Colored carnations will be worn in respect to such as are still livnig to bless households over which they preside.

Sermons appropriate to the occasion will be delivered in churches in this city tomorrow morning. Rev. J. W. Duffey, in the M. E. Church South; Rev. Dr. W. F. Watson, of the Baptist and Rev. Dr. J. Lee Allison in the Second Presbyterian church, and Rev. C. R. Strausburg, of the Methodist Protestant Church, have prepared discourses for the occasion.

During the five years of its existence, the Mothers' Day Association has worked so diligently for the general observance of this day from the beginning of Philadelphia the movement has grown until a large percentage of men in this country, remember, for a day at least the care and sympathy for their mother.

The heathen Chine manifests inborn absurdities in the way of ancestral worship, but that some of their custom should appeal to the Occident is apparent. Confucius insisted upon children showing repect to their parents, and his laws are still to the Chinamen as those of the Medes and Persians, although about twenty-five hundred years have passed away since their great philosopher was in the flesh.

Our country is young, up-to-date and aggressive, but it can still learn from the almond-eyed Mongolian things acceptable to the father of us all.

The convention was called to order by J. I. Pleasants, State president, William King, president of the Board of Aldermen, delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the city. Rev. Dr. James D. Paxton gave the convention welcome for Post G, the host of the gathering.

Yesterday afternoon the convention paid a visit to the andolph-Macon Woman's College, being entertained by the senior class. The visitors were given tonight an informal reception at the new Virginia Hotel.

LITTLE GIRL KILLED.

Severed in Train by a Car in Richmond.

Richmond May 10.—Alice Elizabeth Poh, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius J. Poh, was instantly crushed to death yesterday afternoon in front of her home by a heavy double-truck car o fthe Virginia Railway and Power Company. While the car was said to be moving at a rate of speed between eight and nine miles an hour, it was not stopped until the body had been dragged seven feet. It was almost completely cut in two by the first wheels of the front truck.

Conductor V. M. Davis jumped from the car as soon as it was brought to a standstill and dragged the body from beneath the wheels and laid it beside the track. In the meantime, several policemen arrived, and the motorman, W. M. Staton, was taken in custody and the formal charge of murder lodged against him. He was released on bail.

The little girl had been to the store of her grandfather, Jacob J. Poh, almost directly across from her home. She had left the house and was smiling and romping across the street when the accident happened.

ROBBED IN SIDE SHOW.

Follows Show to Another Town And Recovers His Money.

Denton, Md. May 10.—James Hobbs, a well known retired farmer, of the Third district, of Caroline county, was relieved of $325 in cash in a side show tent at a circus which exhibited here Wednesday.

Mr. Hobbs enlisted the sheriff's office yesterday in an effort to get his money back, and, with Deputy Sheriff Temple, followed the circus to Dover, without success.

Returning from Chestertown last night Hobbs and Temple, who were accompanied by Lawyer Jacob E. Ellwanger, said that they had recovered the whole sum lost by Hobbs from the manager of the circus after threatening legal proceedings. Hobbs was loitering in the snake tent at the circus and says he was offered a marvelous electric belt at a ridiculous price, and, putting it on to test its qualities, was dazed an dthe sharpers got his money. At Dover Thursday the gamblers and fakirs are reported to have carried on a huge business.

Gamblers and fakers of various kinds had a field day in Denton on Wednesday. A number of venturesome visitors to the circus grounds report losing sums of money, from $10 to $57, in some of the sure things offered for their entertainment. A vendor of razors, who began by selling razors for a dollar and handing the money back to the buyers, cleaned up a good pile and left behind a large supply of 10-cent razors.

LEST WE FORGET.

Last Saturday in commenting on the anticipated policy of the Wilson administration to limit the appropriations for the government's orderly and businesslike operations to a sum that could be raised within a reasonable exercise of the taxing power, we said many persons in public positions would "vote" for any measure to spend money, and then veto for a second bond issue, expecting others to purchase the bonds," etc.

There is nothing original in these thoughts or statements as they have again and again been brought to the attention of all the people, but cannot be too often repeated.

In last week's Leslie's Weekly there was an article on the craze for spending, in which James J. Hill, the railway magnate declares public economy has become a lost art. He says:

The whole American public is wild with spending. Public economy is a lost art. A bill that carries or requires an appropriation needs little else to commend it to any legislative body. All bonds of municipalities are now refunded instead of being paid when due. The excuse for a bond issue is always that "posterity" ought to bear part of the cost of public improvements. But when we, as posterity, come along we not only do not repudiate the contract, but add new burdens to the old and shove both of them on to the future in the shape of new and refunding bond issues.

It is perhaps the meanest form of stealing ever invented, because it adds to the criminality of breach of trust the basenes sof embezzling future resources of our own children, who, since there must come an end to borowing some time, will have these debts to pay.

Mr. Hill is not an alarmist, not a railroad wrecker, but one of the strongest characters in the business world, now and for years past engaged in developing and in carrying his railways in the mountains and forests of the extreme west. Neither is he posing as an economist for some ulterior purpose, for he is facing the setting rather than the rising sun. Yet that does not deter him from using words of wisdom, admonition and warning—and this he does when he says we are "embezzling the future resources of our own children, who, since there must come an end of borowing some time, will have these debts to pay."

Of course they will. More than a year ago, one of Alexandria's useful representatives in the Board of Aldermen asked, "If we intended to have an endless chain of temporary loans. If there was to be no day of redemption."

Thoughtful men are studying these questions. Of course there are others who are absolutely indifferent. That there are such we must reconcile ourselves and with the Bard of Avon, "That 'tis true, 'tis pity, and pity 'tis, 'tis true."

THE "COUNTRY JOCK" AND THE "CITY PIG."

That cities and rural sections of states in the American union have manifested senseless jealousy of each other from time immemorial is a sad fact, and in consequence of such conditions the material welfare of both have naturally suffered.

Some cities have realized that neither will grow so long as such a spirit of prejudice exists and steps have been taken, with satisfactory results, of bringing the two together for the mutual good of both.

There never has been any real reason why cities and rural communities in Virginia should not vie. We are all members of one great commonwealth, sharing in state pride, and when we go out of our country we wear the badge of the state; not that of a city. We should so pose at home.

It is sad to admit that often in state legislatures suspicion exists between rural and city representatives, and measures devised in the interest of both are often pigeonholed or buried entirely for no other reason than that they had their birth in a caucus of city or town delegates, or emanated from a bevy of rural delegates.

The absurdity of such childness should be apparent to all. There is but one way to build up a state and that is for all sections to work together.

As stated above, some sections are realizing this, and that it could be worked in and around Alexandria is believed by all who have given the matter any thought. Both sections are naturally dependent upo neach other The farmer depends upon the city for his market, and the city relies upon the rural community for its supplies

A cotemporary in alluding to the rivalry between cities and rural communities says:

In Trenton, Mo., there was a commercial club composed of 150 members and the members were dissatisfied with business conditions. They took counsel and decided to make a campaign for membership among the farmers and rural residents "within the circumference of the sphere of common welfare."

The result is that there are now 500 members in the Trenton Commercial Club. The Trenton business men started out to "do away with the imaginary line known as the corporate limits of the town," and they have succeeded. The farmers are now as active in booming the town of Trenton as the business men are active in booming fresh farm products. The farmers and business men are standing together for mutua advantage and both classes are more prosperous than ever before in their history.

"The Trenton idea," as it is called in Missouri, is taking root. Other towns are trying it out with good results. If it spreads over the United States there will be greater unity between the rural sections and the city sections, and both will be improved.

The Chamber of Commerce could profit by the above hints. There is a large and prosperous back country, and could the city and rural sections conclude to work together with a will a new era would doubtless dawn upon both.

The city must not attempt to corral everything within its walls and then close the gates, nor should rural neighbors look with jealousy upon them. They are naturally dependent upon each other.

A SUGGESTION.

(Communicated.)

An old Aexandrian visiting the old home city today since a long absence was forcibly struck by the evidences of improvements to be seen on every hand. New and handsome buidings, modern and busy stores, smooth streets and sidewalks; and it looks like a paint brush had been getting on its most effective work in place where it was sadly needed. All these things were most gratifying to me, and congratulations are due to the Alexandrians who are puttin their shoulders to the wheel to lift it out of the ancient rut. All honor to them.

While on this subject I hope I shall be pardoned if I make a suggestion. Would it not, be a great improvement if your architecturally beautiful City Hall should be relieved of its red brick and mortar appearance? Paint it white or a cream color, similar to the postoffice, spire and all, and the effect would be marvelous, giving you an imposing and handsome public building in keeping with the spirit of improvement now being shown in the old town.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

HIS TERRIBLE FAULT.

He's the finest sort of fellow,
He's true blue and not yellow,
He is handsome, bold and full of manly grace,
His heart is e'er afire,
With ambitions all admire,
But he wears some red side-whiskers on his face.

He is generous and he's loyal,
In his spending he is royal,
And he doesn't mind how fast he sets the pace,
He is noble and forgiving
And he knows the joys of living,
But he wears some red side-whiskers on his face.

He can pardon human folly
And his laugh is always jolly,
He's the finest and the grandest of his race,
But his fault is sad and glaring
I refer of course, to wearing
Those preposterous side-whiskers on his face.

Well, the gentleman who got so mad about us "making a monkey" of one of his friends ought to be very careful. There's no telling when the lightning may strike him.

After eleven years of looking upon the wine when it wes red a fellow citizen occupies a seat on the water-wagon. He looks so out of place up there we just had to mention it.

After days so warm and sunny,
Why it does seem rather funny
That it should turn cold and winter winds should blow,
For at this stage of our annals
We've laid away our flannels
And heavens knows we miss them don't you know?

ENORMOUS RUN OF HERRING.

Thousands of Fish Ground to Death in Locks of Chesapeake And Delaware Waterway.

Philadelphia, May 10.—Although the scant catch of shad is puzzling fishermen to such a nextent that the Federal Bureau of Fisheries has sent experts to inquire into the cause, the run of herring in the Delaware & Chesapeake Canal has been so great that progress of steamers through the locks has bene materially impeded. Many of the vessels that pass through the canal on the way to and from Philadelphia and Baltimore are of such dimensions that their sides scrape the walls of the locks. As a result, thousands of herring are killed with the passage of each steamer, according to reports of the masters of the various vessels of the Ericsson line.

Residents of Delaware City and of Chesapeake City have seized the opportunity to reduce the cost of living and have already caught many tons of the herring. They are so plentiful in the canal locks that a continuel splashing sound is audible from their movements. Frequently numbers of the fish attempt to leap over the lock gates and in several instances, they have ben reported as jumping so high out of the water as to land on the decks of passing craft.

At a Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court House of the said city, on Tuesday, May 6th, 1913. Present Hon. J. B. T. Thornton, Judge.

Marion H. Pender, Complainant,
Vs.
Mary Pender, Defendant.

Upon the application of complainant stating specifically the last known place of abode of the defendant, and it appearing to the Court that process has been issued and returned by the Sergeant of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, showing the defendant not being found within the jurisdiction of this Court,, the Court on this 6th day of May, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain a decree absolutely divorcing the complainant, Marion H, Pender, from the defendant, Mary Pender, on the ground of adultery on the part of said defendant and for general relief, and an affidavit having been filed that the defendant, Mary Pender, is a non-resident of the state of Virginia, it is ordered that she go appear here within fifteen days after due publication of said order of publication and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia; that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House, of the Circuit Court of said city, on or before the next succeeding Rule Day after this order is entered; and that a copy of said order of publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court addressed to the said non-resident defendant at Crockett, Houston county, Texas, her last known place of address.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE
BIBLE STUDY ON

THE GIFTS OF WHITSUNTIDE.

1 Corinthians 12:1-11—May 11.

"There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit."—Verse 4.

WHITSUNTIDE, or Pentecost, marks a period in God's great Program next in importance to the events connected with our Lord Jesus; namely, His baptism and anointing of the Holy Spirit at Jordan, His finishing His vow of consecration at Calvary, His resurrection and glorious spirit-birth, as partaker of the Divine nature.

When Jesus consecrated His life at Jordan, and symbolized it in His water baptism, God accepted the sacrifice, and bestowed upon Him the Holy Spirit in begetting power. Thenceforth He was the Son of God in two senses—according to the flesh, and according to the Spirit. But in God's order, the spirit-begotten One was to triumph by fully offering up the fleshly one. This work was accomplished at Calvary, where Jesus laid down His life on behalf of the world.

Jesus' water immersion and Spirit-Begetting.

After Jesus' ascension, He appeared in the Father's presence, and made satisfaction for the sins of the Church alone—those who would accept the Father's call to walk in Jesus' footsteps. As for the world, their sins are still upon them. The only way to obtain forgiveness, therefore, is to become a disciple of Jesus.

The Scriptures show us that God has a different time and way for dealing with the world. He will deal with the world through Christ's Millennial Kingdom, scattering their darkness, forgiving their sins and uplifting them to human perfection. Meantime, He deals with the Church only, and it is the Church that the Apostle discusses in today's lesson.

The Church began its existence at Pentecost. Hence Whitsuntide marks an important event in the Church's affairs. Until our Lord's presentation of His merit on their behalf, they were like the remainder of mankind—condemned in Adam. When the Pentecostal blessing came, it manifested the Father's acceptance of Jesus' sacrifice as satisfactory for the sins of the Church—the Household of Faith.

The Gifts of the Spirit.

We are to distinguish between the gifts of the Spirit and the fruits of the Spirit. The fruits of the Spirit are developments of heart and character, coming more or less slowly, according to the personality and environment of the spirit-begotten one. These fruits of the Spirit, the Apostle says, can be seen—are manifest—meekness, gentleness, patience, long-suffering, brotherly-kindness, love.

These fruits must be developed in our hearts. They will be manifested in our thoughts, words and deeds. The riper the Christian, the riper the fruits If no fruits appear, then there is no Christian. "If any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His." But these fruits may be so overshadowed by weaknesses of the flesh that all may not see to what extent he is fighting a good fight against the world, the flesh and the Devil.

When Pentecost came, the disciples were not prepared to manifest immediately ripe fruitage of the Spirit. Up to this time they were natural men. We see, then, why they could not have a manifestation of the fruits of the Spirit. But it was necessary that they have some indication of God's favor.

God manifested His acceptance of their consecration by the bestowment of certain gifts, which were not fruits of the Spirit in any sense. These gifts were widely distributed in the early Church, and were miraculous. Some spoke languages of which they had no previous knowledge; some had the gift of interpreting these languages; some received the gift of healing; some had power for other miracles.

These gifts served a three-fold purpose: (1) They manifested God's favor thereby proving that Christ's redemption work had been satisfactory. (2) They proved that God was with the disciples, and this would induce lovers of God to investigate the Gospel. (3) They assured the disciples that God was leading them.

Pentecost Manifested God's Acceptance of Jesus' Sacrifice.

These experiences were necessary. The early Church could not walk by faith as we do. They had no Bibles. They had no instruction, except such as came through these channels. St. Paul explains the matter in today's lesson. Through the operation of these gifts the brethren obtained fellowship and instruction.

God taught them in almost the only possible way in which they could receive instruction, but very differently from that in which He has since instructed His people. Such instruction is no longer necessary, and hence no longer given. We have the Scriptures Divinely provided helps, with which, as St. Paul declares, the man of God may be thoroughly furnished unto every good work. Instead of the gifts we have the fruits of the Spirit, the chief of which is Love.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Hemmed in by flames, six members of the crew of the steamer Ophir, which sailed from VanCouver Thursday night and tied up near Ladnar yesterday, in the Frazier river, were burned to death yesterday in a fire that destroyed the vessel.

Charges that Dr. E. A. Barber, superintendent of the Dayton, Ohio, State Hospital, made improper proposals to owmen employes; that he spent much time away from the institution; that he does not give patients and employes the attention they are entitled to, and that he shirks his duty generally, were filed with the State Board of Administration today by Dr. John V. Koch, who was first assistant superintendent of the hospital until April 1, when he was discharged oy Dr. Barber.

The first authentic and official report of the federal government's investigation of the Friedmann tuberculosis vaccine, made public in Washington yesterday, declares the results of the Public Health Service observation so far do "not justify that confidence in the remedy which has been inspired by widespread publicity." The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, before which the report was presented, immediately and unanimously adopted resolutions declaring its belief that 'no specific cure for tuberculosis has been discovered that deserves the confidence of the medical profession and the public," and declaring it to be the duty of the public to continue all the present well-tried agencies."

The red flag of the Socialist organization may fly in East Liverpool, Ohio, or any other town in that state, according to the opinion of Attorney General Hogan, delivered to City Solicitor Benjamin Bennett yesterday and by him transmitted to Mayor R. J. Marshal, under whose order the flag was removed several days ago. The socialists replaced the flag, and when the news of the decision reached East Liverpool some person climbed to the roof of the building from which it was flying and smeared it with black ink. The Socialists immediately offered a reward for the name of the man, but no one came forward with the information, although the act was witnessed, it was alleged, by many persons.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw has abandoned, temporarily at least, her ambition to become a sculptress and will return to the stage. She has signed a contract to tour music halls and vaudeville theatres of England and America. Her salary is given at $5,000 a week. She will make her first appearance in a few weeks at a London music hall.

Fighting desperately until a third bullet through his body rendered him helpless, Geo. Granville, a 14-year-old lad, made a brave but futile attempt early yesterday morning to save the life of his mother, Mrs. Alice Granville, who was shot and killed at her home in New York, by John G. Ames, a former marine, for more than twenty years a crack shot in the United States Marine corps. Ames afterward turned the revolver on himself, and in an antemortem statement confessed to the double shooting. The tragedy is believed to have been the result of attempts of the dead woman to discontinue her relations with Ames before her son would discover the true relationship of the man whom he has been calling "uncle" for more than two years.

Florence Strine, 17 years old, was struck by an automobile last night while crossing over one of the principal thoroughfares of York, Pa., and porbably fatally injured. She was trying to dodge a car and did not notice the approach of the automobile. She was crushed beneath the automobile and sustained internal injuries and and bruises.

Charles C. Glover, the Washington banker, who recently attacked Representative Sims, of Tennessee, on account of a speech delivered in the House, was brought before the bar of the House, late yesterday and reprimanded by Speaker Clark for violating the privileges of the House. A resolution authorizing the banker's arrest had been adopted a few minute before, with only four dissenting votes. When brought in by the sergeant-at-arms, Glover read an apology, saying that his act was committed under great stress of feeling and that he did not know he was affronting the House.

Sues for Maintenance.

Rose A. Farley yesterday filed suit for maintenance in Washington against Timothy A. Farley, an employe of the Senate Office Building. They were married in Aexandria September 19, 1903, and have one child. Desertion is charged.

YOUR HAIR TURNING GREY OR FADED

Restored Immediately To Dark Beautiful Color by Hay's Hair Health

There is no need of any one now-a-days having grey or faded hair, or dandruff either, that causes it to fall out constantly.

Falling hair and dandruff ruin a beautiful head of hair in no time and grey and faded hair make you look so much older than you really are.

Hay's Hair Health used regularly will bring your hair back to its natural color quickly and more effectively than anything else. Its so easy to use; just apply a little at night, according to directions, and you'll be delighted and surprised at the almost immediate change. Often a single application will do wonders towards restoring the hair to its natural color. People everywhere are using Hay's Hair Health in preference to any other preparation to restore their hair to its dark, beautiful, glossy natural color, because it does it so much quicker and more satisfactory and is so much nicer and cleaner to use.

Druggists will refund your money if Hay's Hair Health is not satisfactory after a fair trial.

Free: Sign this adv. and take it to the following druggists and get a 50c size bottle of Hay's Hair Health and a 25c cake of Harfina Soap free, for 50c; or $1.00 size bottle of Hay's Hair Health and two 25c cakes of Harfina Soap free, for $1.00.

MAY FURNITURE AND HOOSIER SALE

Saves Miles of Steps—Low Fixed Price

How Another Woman Joined the Hoosier Club

Mrs. L.—using a Hoosier Cabinet finished her work and is reading the paper.

She sees that a few club memberships are left and decides immediately to go tell her friend Mrs. R., who had been lamenting over the phone about her tired feet from so much work to do.

Mrs. L. — finds Mrs. R., in her kitchen tired out—work unfinished—pots and pans scattered everywhere. "Do you know you can stil join the Hoosier Club and have a Hoosier today?" Exclaimed Mrs. L. "Put on your hat! Never mind dishes! We must gt there before all mem berships are taken."

Arrived at the store Mrs. R.learned for the first time, of all the marvelous special and exclusive features that make the Hoosier an unequalled labor-saving machine. "I want to join the club," she said. She found the club privilege cost her nothing. And she was delighted that she had come in time, for the list was nearly full.

That afternoon the Hoosier was placed carefully in her kitchen, ready for her utensils and groceries. Mind you, she had paid only a single dollar of the cabinet's value, and here is her Hoosier ready to save her miles of steps by putting an end to her needless walking.

Next day Mrs. R. finished her work one hour sooner and hastened to phone Mrs. L.,—"I don't know how I got along before. Why everything is at my finger's ends. I wish you could see how spick and span my kitchen is. I've saved an hour this morning already! I can't realize that 14 cents a day for a little while pays for everything.

Amazing Demand for Hoosiers

Already 18 Club Memberships Snapped up Speedily—Only 7 Left

Do you see how few Hoosiers are left. The owmen who enroll right away in the Hoosier Club can have the Hoosier delivered—immediately—on payment of merely the $1.00 membership fee which applies on the price of the Cabinet.

You make up the rest of the low price (which is fixed by the Hoosier Company) with the weekly dues—only 14 cents a day for a few short weeks and you absolutely own your Hoosier. But don't delay—you are sure be disappointed if you wait. A dollar a week pays all.

Women everywhere appreciate this unusual opportunity to install a complete "little kitchen" on such easy terms that paying for it is play—In every part of this "City of Model Kitchens" you'll find Hoosiers.

Better Call Tomorrow If You Want A Hoosier For $1.00

Once you see the Hoosier with its silver bright aluminum table top, its rows of glittering crystal glass pars that hold tea and coffee and spices—inspect its metal lined flour bin, equipped with a handy sifter—its equally convenient sugar bin—its ample cupboard and cunningly contrived space saving arrangements—You will realize what it means to you—how it saves all the weary walking between pantry and cupboard and able, collecting utensils and supplies and then putting them all away again.

NO NEED TO STAND EITHER— you can get a big dinner or prepare your weekly baking almost without rising from your stool.

Everything you need in cooking is within reach of your arm—to use and immediately put back again.

You don't have to pick things up and put them away after you are through. You have everything in order—without effort.

Busy or quiet, your kitchen is always immaculate once you install a Hoosier.

THE HALF MILLON WOMEN who already own the Hoosier say that it makes cooking easy—saves miles of steps—gives time for rest and pleasure.

Would you like to enjoy all these benefits on payment of $1.00? Then call on us without delay.

YOU ARE WASTING TIME and strength and health until you own a Hoosier. Will you go on wasting? No. Then enroll! Enter your name! Be a Hoosier member right away.
